Leghorn, Feb. 2. N. S.

ON the 27th paſt arrived here the Wincheſter Man of War, Capt. John Norris Commander, from Genoua; and yeſterday came in the Sorlingues Man of War, Captain John Worrel, from Tunis and Tripoli. The Ruby, Captain Kinton Commander, ſailed laſt week for London; and the Upton Galley, Capt. Camell Commander, for Gallipoli. The Great Duke of Tuſcany is expected next week at Piſa. The Cardinal de Medicis arrived here yeſterday from Modena.

Venice, Feb. 6. An Expreſs arrived here yeſterday from Carlowitz with an Account, that the Peace with the Turks was ſigned on the 26th paſt by the Imperial Ambaſſadors, and thoſe of Poland and Muſcovy, it being ſtipulated that this Republick ſhould have 2 Months time allowed them to finiſh their Treaty. The Queen-Dowager of Poland departed from hence this morning for Ferrara with the Cardinal d'Arquien her Father, being very well ſatisfied with the Honours paid her by our Senate, who have appointed ſeveral Perſons of Quality to attend her as far as Ferrara, where ſhe will be received by the Pope's Officers, who are to conduct her to Rome, and defray the Charges of her Journey. The Duke of Mantua, and the Princes of Mirandola and Centurione, the Marquis Imperiali, and the Counts Forzi and Lamiunville, are come to paſs the Carnaval in this Place. The Sieur Lenoncourt, Envoy from the Duke of Lorraine, has had Audience of Leave of the College, and is preparing to return home. They write from Rome, that the Differences between the Pope and the Emperor are not yet adjuſted, and in the mean time the Pope refuſes to admit the Imperial Ambaſſador to Audience. We have Advice from Conſtantinople by the way of Raguſa, that an Earthquake has lately happened there, by which 700 Houſes were thrown down, and above 1500 Perſons killed.

Warſaw, Jan. 31. Preparations are making for the Reception of the Queen of Poland, who is expected here in the Spring from Saxony. The Negociations for accommodating the Difference between the Cardinal Primate and the Biſhop of Cujavia, are continued with good Succeſs. The Senate have met ſeveral times to conſider of the Inſtructions to be given to the Plenipotentiaries, who are to Treat on the part of this Crown with thoſe of the Elector of Brandenburgh, for adjuſting the Affair of Elbing; In the mean time, we hear the Brandenburgers are ſtoring their Magazines, and repairing the Fortifications of their Frontier Places on the Borders of Pruſſia; It's ſaid, General Brandt has deſired the Officers of the King's Saxon Forces that are in thoſe Parts, to remove ſuch of them which are quartered in the Dependencies of Elbing, but that they refuſed to do it.

Carlowitz, Feb. 4. The Ambaſſador of Muſcovy having agreed to make a Truce of two Years with the Turks, during which time they may treat further if they think fit, the ſame was accordingly ſigned by both ſides on the 24th of the laſt Month. The 26th being the day fixed by the Imperialiſts, the Poles, and the Turks, for ſigning of their Treaties, they accordingly repaired to the Chamber of Conference, attended by all their Guards and Servants in very ſplendid Liveries, and there, in preſence of the Mediators, the Peace was ſigned and ſealed, the Doors of the Chamber being ſet open, the Trumpets ſounding, and a treble Diſcharge being made of 6 Pieces of Cannon, which were purpoſely brought thither from Belgrade and Peter-Waradin. Then the Ambaſſadors of the Emperor and the King of Poland went to the Apartment of my Lord Paget, Ambaſſador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Majeſty of Great-Britain, who gave them a very noble Entertainment. Count Otting, the Emperor's Firſt Plenipotentiary, entertained the Mediators and the other Ambaſſadors the next day, and the following days were ſpent by the ſeveral Miniſters in viſiting and feaſting each other. On the 31ſt paſt, the Ambaſſador of Poland left this Place to return to Warſaw, and the Ambaſſador of Muſcovy went from hence yeſterday. This day the Mediators and the Turkiſh Miniſters returned to Belgrade, and the Imperialiſts to Kneskemet, where they intend to continue till the exchange of the Ratifications, except Count Marſigly, who is gone on to Vienna. The Ambaſſador of Venice not having yet received the Senate's Orders for ſigning his Treaty, is gone to Peter Waradin, where he will expect the return of a Courier he ſent lately to Venice.

Vienna, Jan. 11. The Queen of the Romans arrived the firſt Inſtant at Inſpruck, and came the 7th to Saltzburgh, where ſhe was received with great Reſpect, and was ſplendidly entertained by the Arch-Biſhop of that Place; Her Majeſty is expected this day at Lintz, and will arrive at Eberſdorf on the 21ſt Inſtant, where ſhe intends to continue till every thing is prepared for her Entry, which is fixed for the 24th. It being ſtipulated in the Treaty of Truce between the Emperor and the Port, That Commiſſioners ſhall meet at Carlowitz on the 21ſt of March to ſettle the Limits in Hungary, and to adjuſt ſome other Matters which are left undecided by the ſaid Treaty, the Emperor's Miniſters are frequently aſſembled to draw up Inſtructions for the ſaid Commiſſioners; and Count Marſigli, who was one of the Emperor's Plenipotentiaries at the Treaty with the Turks, is to be one of them. They write from Buda, that the ſaid Count arrived there on the 7th Inſtant, in his return hither from Carlowitz, having been robbed the day before by ſome Huſſars, who charging his Guards, killed divers of them, and the Count himſelf received a Wound in his Foot. It's ſaid, Count Otting, the Emperor's Firſt Plenipotentiary at the late Congreſs at Carlowitz, will go with the Character of Ambaſſador to the Port towards the beginning of the next Month; and that Count Wallenſtein, who was appointed to be the Emperor's Envoy at the Court of France, will be ſent with the like Character to Portugal, and Baron Simzendorf to France. We have Advice from the Frontiers, that Notice has been given to the Commanders of the Troops and Garriſons on both ſides, of the Concluſion of the Peace, upon which they have ſtrictly forbid their Soldiers to go out in Parties
